

Ahmad Maulana

Junior Web Developer

Hi.. my name is Ahmad Irfan Maulana, I like football and I'm a fans of the germany football club. I have a dream of being a successful person at a young age as world technology developer. besides that, I was very eager to go to Germany country. My main activity now is coding. I like solving problems in making software, especially websites. I am also a game maker, not a game player. and I always thought that I should be useful for world.
